

Kabbalistic Ritual Study Guide for Initiates and Members of
Circulos Tenebris Matrem Arcanas
Circle of the Dark and Mysterious Mother

Introduction

Kabbalistic ritual is all focused on building a sphere of light using 7 directions (East, South, West, North, Down, Up, and Inside). Once the sphere is created, any type of ritual work can be done in the container and then the sphere is reversed and closed out. Kabbalistic ritual usually uses the divine names associated with the Tree of Life, but one could substitute associated God and Goddess names instead (see the Kabbalah Study Guide). The opening and closing of a ritual is usually performed with the wand (representing fire and mercy), but any tool can be substituted such as the athame (air and severity), the cup (water and mercy), the pentacle (earth and severity), or the crystal sphere (spirit and compassion).

The Ritual

Open with prayer

Face the East and use the wand to outline an invoking pentagram. “Push” the wand through the center and intone the divine name “Ehieh” (eh-hi-eh). Ask the archangel Raphael to come and be part of the ritual.

Face the South and use the wand to outline an invoking pentagram. “Push” the wand through the center and intone the divine name “YHWH Elohim” (ya-way el-o-heem). Ask the archangel Michael to come and be part of the ritual.

Face the West and use the wand to outline an invoking pentagram. “Push” the wand through the center and intone the divine name “Shadai El-Chai” (sha-die-el-hi). Ask the archangel Gavriel to come and be part of the ritual.
